

3rd Annual
Latino
Role Models Day

FRIDAY, APRIL 4, 2014

Hale Hall | MLK, Jr. Theatre | 154 W. 12th Ave. | Columbus, OH 43210

FEATURING ALVARO RODRIGUEZ SCREENPLAY AND FICTION AUTHOR

SCHEDULE (Check in at MLK, Jr., Theatre)

8:00 am - 11:00 am	Mentoring activities
11:00 am - 12 noon	Campus Tour
12 noon - 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm - 2:30 pm	Keynote, Alvaro Rodriguez
2:45 pm - 4:00 pm	Humanities & LASER Graduate Fellow Presentations: Verónica Betancourt and Brena Yu-Chen Tai

Alvaro Rodriguez is a screenwriter who has co-authored the films Shorts and Machete, both directed by Robert Rodriguez, as well as The Hangman's Daughter, a prequel to From Dusk Till Dawn. A frequent panelist and presenter at the Austin Film Festival, he has also curated an "Epoca de Oro" Mexican film series at the Museum of South Texas History and has presented on the smuggled subtext(s) in Machete at South Texas College. His border-influenced short fiction has appeared in multiple publications both physical and digital, including Along the River (edited by David Bowles, 2011) and After Death (edited by Eric J. Guignard, 2013). He is currently developing a television series for Robert Rodriguez's El Rey television network while juggling fatherhood and family in and along the South Texas border.

 THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

OFFICE OF DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION
 OFFICE OF STUDENT LIFE MULTICULTURAL CENTER

